1. SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES: [REDACTED] 27 visited [REDACTED] for the better part of the month leaving most of the duties to [REDACTED]-28 who enjoyed a considerable amount of flying. He completed 3 [REDACTED] Sorties, one [REDACTED], one [REDACTED] and one fuel check. He also flew 8 T-33 Sorties.

[REDACTED] 27 flew one T-33 Sortie on return from [REDACTED]. It now appears that all [REDACTED] aircraft have been removed from the unit and all future flying will be done with the [REDACTED] model, some adapted for in flight refuelling. These models are painted midnight blue overall. A form of "continuous ignition" is to be fitted to all aircraft. This comes into operation when the auxiliary fuel boost pump is switched on and is intended to reduce the possibility of "flame out" at high altitude.
